Coch Parker's Statement

The 99th season of our country's oldest and often most competitive football game will be an exciting conclusion to a year of growth for our team. The skills, determination and loyalty they have displayed make them a most honorable and worthy rival.

Along with a positive and dedicated coaching staff, our team's effort this year has been one of determination and improvement and will serve as a good example for our future players!

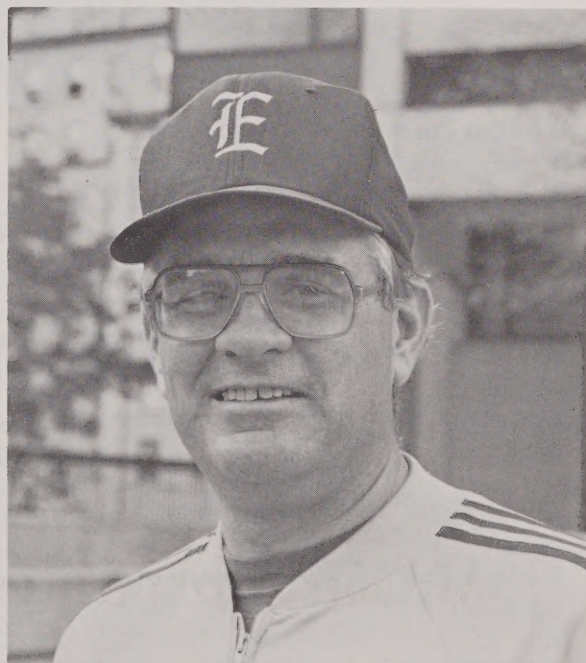

Our team is lead by Co-Captains Ormand Adams, Frank Larmond, Chris Brown and "four year player" Roscoe Curry. Great contributions from QB Darren Goss and "do-everything back" William Iraola give our team the look of a proud group aiming toward success. Our state champion dashman Lazar Franklin leads our receivers. Mike Dozier and Darius Reid play a huge part in the work hard ethics of this year's squad. Our big tackle Lou Velez and newcomers Tony Barros, Ronnie Armany and Domenic DeSantis have made playing football an important part of their lives. Speaking for all our our coaching staff, we have had a good experience in guiding and watching these men learn, grow and mature into fine and competitive young people.

Good Luck to the men of EHS and may they go with Pride and go with Respect.

Headmaster's Message

On the eve of the 99th renewal of the English High School - Latin School football classic, and the conclusion of Latin School's 350th year, I'd like to salute Mr. Michael Contompasis, his fine staff, and his tremendous student body, and commend them for the Latin School's 350 years of academic excellence.

As we meet on the football field again, we have much to be thankful for. I hope that the fine gentlemen who represent our two outstanding institutions have a great day today, enjoy themselves, play with pride, and always remember the role they've played in this fine tradition. Finally, and most importantly, with all due respect, may the BLUE AND BLUE reign supreme!

LATIN

As the month of November rolls around thoughts along the avenue turn towards the renewal of perhaps the oldest and finest rivalry in schoolboy athletics. The friendly rivalry that exists between these two great secondary schools is a source of pride to every member of each school's community. The spirit, enthusiasm and determination of the students attending these two fine educational institutions is as great now as it was when this series first began. I commend the dedication of the coaches and players of both schools. Let us continue the tradition of school excellence and good sportsmanship which has existed through the long and brilliant history of each school.

Michael Contompasis

Coach Costello's Statement

Wolfpack '85 has gone through a season which has had some impressive wins and a few heartbreaking losses. This team has character and has battled every game against some outstanding competition. Captain Paul Toomey has provided excellent leadership and the team has responded with hard work and dedication.

I would like to thank my Assistant Coaches, John McDonough, Tony Catalamo and Frank Stevens for all their efforts this year on behalf of the players.

A special thanks to the many parents of the Wolfpack Gridiron Club for all that they do to help and support the team during the season. The players and coaches greatly appreciate you being there.

Good Bye to Latin,
Good Riddence to English.
from HR. 118 — Class of 1986

HR. CCXXIII says:
"Calcitrate Nates
Viri Scholae Latinae"

Survivors of the BLS Class of 1966 (shown above), frolicking at their 20th reunion last spring.

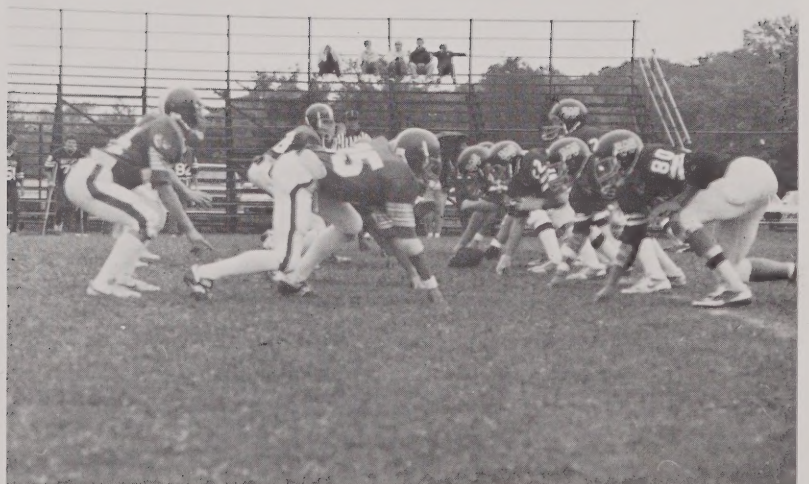

The Class of 1966 wisely counsels the Latin School varsity to exercise due diligence this morning and squash English like waterbugs.

As undergraduates we too were unrestricted spirits, until the Head Master showed to us our hubris and bade us reform.

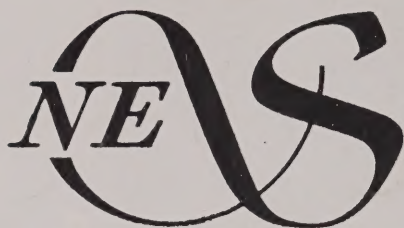

"You must be exemplars," he decreed, and so we are. Except for a medicinal taste of peppermint schnapps, we have grown sober and reflective. We drink solely from the wellspring of truth, found annually at the Cafe Hammond. Ample parking available.
